

HSBC Expat FX app

When you're living overseas, managing your money can be tricky.

The HSBC Expat FX app can help you stay on top of your finances from anywhere in the world.

With it, you can review your global HSBC accounts through an FX lens.

You can automatically convert funds from one currency to another, when it hits the rate you've chosen, any time of day.

So you can relax and enjoy life abroad, knowing your finances are being taken care of.

Or, if you'd prefer to make an exchange yourself, it can let you know when a rate is reached, so you can make the final decision.

With transfers and international payments in up to 23 currencies, there's never been an easier way to make FX decisions.

And to help you make those decisions, you can find key news insights on a specific region or currency all in one place.
