

HSBC Expat - I'm moving abroad for the first time

Moving to another country is an exciting yet challenging adventure.

New places to explore, new people to meet, and new customs to embrace.

On top of everything else, setting up your finances abroad is not always easy.

We can make it easier for you to manage your money...

Helping you understand things like foreign exchange options, or paying bills in different currencies.
Changes in the exchange rate may impact upon your return, if you convert funds back to the original currency.

We can set up a local bank account ready for when you arrive at your destination.

So you have more time to explore your new home.

And with our 24/7 phone, online and mobile banking services you'll be able to access your money easily when you're on the go.

Our expat specialists can help you understand your financial commitments at home and abroad, and help you save for the future you want.

You'll also benefit from complimentary travel safety services, giving emergency support to you and your family.

So you can relax, knowing support is there if you need it.
